

What is a GASQ Accredited Exam Center?

GASQ Accredited Exam Centers (AECs) are institutions that offer GASQ e-exams from anywhere in the world. More than 250 AECs, cooperation partners, certification schemes and national testing boards are representing GASQ on multiple national markets. Any institution that wants to offer GASQ exams and satisfies technical requirements can become an AEC. It is especially advantageous for existing exam centers, training providers, educational institutions and companies.

Benefits of becoming a GASQ AEC

- You get a chance to offer internationally recognized exams in software quality and other areas
- You are granted an independent choice of exams that you would like to offer along with the independent scheduling
- Becoming a GASQ AEC provides you with additional revenue opportunities
- GASQ supports you operationally and helps you promote your services

AECs can choose from our top examination schemes

- ISTQB for software testing
- IREB for requirement engineering
- IBUQ for usability and user experience
- CMAP for mobile app testing
- A4Q Selenium Tester and Design Thinking
- IBITGQ for IT governance
- IQBOHS for occupational health and safety
