What is a GASQ AEC?

- GASQ Accredited Exam Centers (AECs) are institutions that offer GASQ e-exams from anywhere in the world.
- More than 250 AECs, cooperation partners, certification schemes and national testing boards are representing GASQ on multiple national markets.
- AECs worldwide help GASQ certify more than 20,000 people yearly in Europe, Asia, North and South America, Australia and Africa.
- GASQ AECs can freely choose from the range of leading globally recognized certifications in software quality and other areas.
Who Can Become a GASQ AEC?

We aim to make sure that any institution that satisfies our technical requirements and wants to become an AEC benefits from this decision. Becoming an AEC would be especially advantageous for:

- Exam Centers
  - If you are already offering examinations in your exam center, becoming a GASQ AEC would increase your product range and expand your customer base.

- Training Providers
  - If you are a training provider for GASQ examination schemes, you can benefit even more from offering GASQ examinations at your location.

- Educational Institutions
  - Any educational institution can become an exam center, securing a more efficient utilization of its resources and obtaining an additional source of income.

- Companies
  - Companies that place a high value on certification of their employees can become an AEC and ensure more flexible and financially beneficial solutions.
